"It is a terrific Result! We have never expected to achieve it – especially not in such a short duration of time. For us, it is not just about selling Tickets, but about a real Exchange of Content! Our leading Motto "Exchange of Excellence" is to be taken literally. We bring the best Experts together to discuss the Developments on Science, Research and Business. And we are always happy to honor special Achievements with our Awards" says Daniel ten Brinke, CEO.

It is very positive to underline that our strategy has turned out to be correct also from the Business Perspective, because by positioning our Clients as Experts, we create the best Basis for the Discussions with Investors and Strategic Partners.
